

Is there any future for the Sunday school?... The answer is YES! And a bright one - especially if we begin today to deepen our commitment to the institution of the Sunday School and the children, youth, and adults we serve. Elmer Towns, one of the nations foremost experts on Sunday School, offers 10 dynamic examples of churches that have charted a new course to success. 10 Sunday Schools That Dared to Change provides inspiring proof that a strong commitment to the Sunday School is not only possible, it is essential to the overall ministry of the church. Readers will discover how other church leaders have captured a vision for Sunday School and spread that vision throughout their churches and their communities. This book examines the importance of the Sunday School from infants to adults in a wide range of denominational settings.
