Not illustrated. 1910 Excerpt: ...it when the sun is first rising over this hemisphere, and pronounce the following words:--I beseech Thee, O Grand Adonay, Eloim, Ariel, and Jehovam, to be propitious unto me, and to endow this Wand which I am cutting with the power and virtue of the rods of Jacob, of Moses, and of the mighty Joshua! I also beseech Thee, O Grand Adonay, Eloim, Ariel, and Jehovam, to infuse into this Rod the whole strength of Samson, the righteous wrath of Emanuel, and the thunders of mighty Zariatnatmik, who will avenge the crimes of men at the Day of Judgment! Amen. Having pronounced these sublime and terrific words, and still keeping your eyes turned towards the region of the rising sun, you may finish cutting your rod, and may then carry it to your abode. You must next go in search of a piece of ordinary wood, fashion the two ends like those of the genuine rod, and take it to an ironsmith, who shall weld the steel blade of the sacrificial knife into two pointed caps, and affix them to the said ends. This done, you may again return home, and there, with your own hands, affix the steel caps to the joints of the genuine rod. Subsequently, you must obtain a piece of loadstone and magnetise the steel ends, pronouncing the following words:--By the grand Adonay, Eloim, Ariel, and Jehovam, I bid thee join with and attract all substances which I desire, by the power of the sublime Adonay, Eloim, Ariel, and Jehovam. I command thee, by the opposition of fire and water, to separate all substances as they were separated on the day of the worlds creation. Amen. 1See Chapter VI., Sec. 1. Finally, you must rejoice in the honour and glory of the sublime Adonay, being convinced that you are in possession of a most priceless Treasure of the Light.1 Â§ 4.
